

Empowering Students: Mini Series

The following is a potential outline of what our workshops can look like

Mini Series

Shameless Idealist : Entrepreneurship and Business

Our world is filled with people who thrive in all things creativity. Within this workshop, students and educators will be guided along how to build an organization, how budgeting works, and how to create a sustainable, positive impact with simple ideas, that will have a lasting impact.

Big World Big Ideas: Leadership and social justice

This workshop will incorporate current events, as well as encourage students to build leadership skills. You can look forward to: team building, educational games, discussing and collaborating on how to solve current world issues, and a toolkit for action planning.

Leaders of tomorrow : Leadership and Politics

We believe that local change, is as important as global change. Within this workshop, students and educators will have the chance to explore community initiatives, will be provided with the resources to start to plan a community engagement project with their class, and learn how to be active citizens in their communities. This is also a workshop were students will get to interact with government officials, and experience a day in the life of a member of parliament

The power of Arts: Leadership in the Pre forming Arts

Every wonder how your love for playing a musical instrument or theatre could make a difference? This is the workshop for you! We will be diving into what leadership is, and how organized sounds can help us be better leaders. Be prepared to bring your instrument, and sting skills of choice a long, as we create notes of change with music and theatre.
